Tea, Coffee, Biscotti and Informal Discussion – Conclusion -

Synopsis

This unique food and wine pairing class run by Dawn-Elizabeth Rudd and Tim Worth, Worth Brothers combines essential cooking skills and techniques in conjunction with wine sampling, including advice on how to taste, appreciate and select wine, resulting in a fascinating journey on the palate.

A menu of 6 different types will be cooked for you, from classic to contemporary, in an informal and relaxed style.

As various seasonings and ingredients are added to each one during the cooking process, the subjective nature of a wine choice is highlighted and discussed as the taste buds are challenged, provoking interesting and lively discussion over each tasting and ultimate wine choice.
